

FHIS Graduate Research Grant

Description

The Department of FHIS is pleased to announce the establishment of the Graduate Research Grant for PhD students. This grant is designed to help graduate students while conducting research outside of B.C. associated with their thesis. Grants up to $2,000 are designed to cover the costs of travel and other research-related expenses.

Terms of Grant

- These grants are for research-related expenses only, and applicants need to make clear how the funds will be used and how they directly relate to their program of research.
- Grants are up to $2,000 and must be used within 12 months of being awarded.
- Students may only hold this grant once during their degree program.

Eligibility

The student must

- Be registered in the PhD program (not on an approved LoA) when the travel takes place.
- Be admitted to Candidacy
- Submit an application form along with a project indicating the purpose of the research trip and how it is related to the thesis.
- Obtain Ethics Approval (if the research involves human participation, like interviews) prior to travel). <https://www.grad.ubc.ca/handbook-graduate-supervision/research-ethics-guide-graduate-students>
- Have his/her supervisor sign the application form.
- Be in good standing and making satisfactory academic progress.
- Submit a report upon returning to UBC.

Application Procedures

The attached application form must be signed by the supervisor and submitted to the Graduate Advisor along with the supporting documents.

Deadlines

The application deadline is March 1st, 2017.
